

TRANSFER AGREEMENT

RARITAN VALLEY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

and

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY

Effective Date, July 1, 2011

Transfer Agreement

This Transfer Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by Seton Hall University ("Seton Hall") and Raritan Valley Community College ("Raritan Valley") on this 12th date of May, 2011, and shall be effective on July 1, 2011 ("Effective Date").

Whereas, Seton Hall recognizes the importance of Raritan Valley in launching students toward achieving an undergraduate degree;

Whereas, Seton Hall and Raritan Valley believe that it is mutually beneficial to them and prospective four year students that the two institutions work collaboratively;

Whereas, Seton Hall seeks to facilitate the transition of students who desire to transfer from Raritan Valley to Seton Hall, by, inter alia, ensuring that they receive strong academic advisement as early in their academic careers as benefits them; and

Whereas, Seton Hall and Raritan Valley have agreed to the global terms reflected herein that shall govern the overall relationship between the institutions, but understand that Appendices shall be added from time to time to reflect the specific terms that affect the eligibility of credits for transfer from and to a specific Seton Hall program or major.

Now, therefore, Seton Hall and Raritan Valley agree to the following:

1. Communication. Maintenance of a strong relationship and clear and timely communication are important to each entity and in the best interests of their respective students. Each entity shall appoint an administrator to serve as the primary point of contact responsible for the implementation of this Agreement ("Point Person"). Each entity's Point Person shall be responsible for communicating a) any changes to this Agreement to all affected stakeholders within his/her entity and b) any programmatic changes at his/her entity that affect the implementation of this Agreement to his/her counterpart at the other institution. Appointment of a Point Person should occur at least annually and be noted below and in appendix C .

Seton Hall Point Person:
Ms. Marie Scolavino

Raritan Valley Point Person:
Mr. Paul Michaud

2. Admission and Enrollment Guidelines. All Raritan Valley students interested in transferring to Seton Hall must complete Seton Hall's Transfer Student Admissions Application and timely provide all required attendant documentation. For graduating students from Raritan Valley, under this agreement, will have their application fee waived.
 - a. Seton Hall/Raritan Valley Dual Admissions Program. Students who wish to enter into the Dual Admissions Program will need to file an application for admission to Seton Hall within their first semester at Raritan Valley. Upon being accepted, students would have their place reserved and defer admission until finishing their AA or AS degree from Raritan Valley, subject to continued fulfillment of all admissions criteria.
 - b. General Admissions (Appendix A). Seton Hall will generally accept students who have maintained a cumulative GPA of above 2.5 (on a 4.0 scale) at Raritan Valley. Depending upon a student's major, Seton Hall will accept up to 64 transfer credits with a grade of at
